ABOUT ME

As a Front-End Developer with 1-year experience, I am currently focused on studying in JavaScript but exposed in all aspects of web development, version management with git. I do programming full time because I'm a "career change". I always want to learn deeply about the basics of the language and move forward to web development with the latest technology needed for work. In addition to the Language Program, I am able to install the operating system, printer and so on.
